

Dear Sirs:

I have recently moved to Cleveland, OH, but before that I lived in Enid Oklahoma for eight years. As part of my job I'd drive between Enid and Oklahoma City (about an hour-and-a-half) at least once a week. I listened to KLVV Radio (translator frequency 98.3) at home and K-Love Radio (translator frequency 88.9) on my commute. Two of my Children still live in Enid, and Stillwater, OK and listen to these two stations.

Both stations provided positive, safe for the whole family programming, including contemporary Christian music, and Christian talk programs like Focus on the Family and Crown Financial Ministries. Christian contemporary music, is my preferred music type, and I've benefited from advice on marriage, child rearing, social issues, and financial planning from listening to these two stations.

If an LPFM broadcaster replaced KLVV and K-Love Radio there would no longer be a source of listener supported Christian radio in Central and North Central Oklahoma. I believe this type of programming is vital to offset and offer an alternative to the more secular programming with its sexually suggestive, materialistic emphasis.

I believe the service provided by KLVV and K-Love is vital to combating our countries slide toward immorality.

Sincerely
David A. Podolny
